Chapter 2 by Kamurin Kizutsukemasu

After James saw Latk he was surprised to know... He was gay, he thought a boy could never match the ultimate perfection of a girl. That's what he thought, until he found his desires in Latk, the foreign exchange student. He found the perfection in a Asian, man.

I didn't want to tell anybody because it was so embarrassing. All the boys are talking about Yatiku Maju she's also a foreign exchange student. A beautiful one at that but she is, STUPID. Everybody likes her because she's super cute. I need a girl, or a boy that can treat me and him or herself. That's what I always thought.

They both went towards the park, Yatiku following James, he stopped about a tenth of a mile away. Yatiku walked up to James and straight up asked "Do you like Latk" James jumped, then said "AH, YES" almost loud enough for Latk to hear. But he didn't hear Yatiku, he got scared out of his feelings, he cursed under his breath. Yatiku said "M-Kay" then walked away, he realized it wouldn't matter, he went back to watching Latk.

Chapter 4 by BR_Finds_Out

(Narrator)

James had woken up in a small room, white as a lamb's wool. He slowly looked from side to side, still dizzy.

Suddenly, he sat up, a dreadful tingling feeling waking him from his hazy sleep. He had forgotten all about Latk, who he had revealed his feelings to. His face turned beet red, and a cold sweat appeared on his brow.
